World War I (also known as WW1 or The Great War) was a global conflict that lasted from 1914 to 1918, involving most of the world's major powers. It was the first world war, and it resulted in the deaths of approximately 16 million people. The war was a result of a complex set of factors, including imperialist competition, a system of alliances, and a series of events that led to the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand in Sarajevo on June 28, 1914.
